

Name :

Class :

Section :

Roll No.

I. Recognise these figures using with the 'Help Box'.

[5 × 1 = 5]

1)

.....

2)

.....

3)

.....

4)

.....

5)

.....

Help Box

Bactrian camel, Griffin, Dormouse, Phoenix, Greyhound

II. Choose the correct answers. Put (✓) mark in the boxes.

[5 × 1 = 5]

1. Fungi and algae differ due to -----

a) Xanthophyll

b) Carotene

c) Chlorophyll

2. is the basic 'unit' of classification.

a) species

b) Genera

c) Group

3. is the stalk of a flower.

a) Petal

b) Pedicel

c)Thalamus

4. Which is the National tree of India ?

a) Pipal

b) Banyan

c) Neem

5. is the slowest growing tree in the world.

a) Pine

b) Coconut

c) white cedar of canuda

III. Fill in the blanks.

[5 × 1 = 5]

1. tree is used as a christmas tree.

2. Plants kingdom is divided into groups.

3. is the only cat that cannot retract its claws.

4. is called fire bird.

5. tallest land animal.

IV. True or False.

[5 × 1 = 5]

1. Similes compare two things by using the words such as 'like' and 'so'. ()

2. Chimera has the body of a horse with a long single horn on its head. ()

3. Thalamus is the stalk of a flower. ()

4. Sharks apparently are the only animals that where get sick. ()

5. Mushroom is a fungus i.e., generally eaten by people. ()

V. Answer the following questions.

[5 × 1 = 5]

1. What is the largest carnivore on land ?

2. Name the only mammal with hair on the soles of its feet.

3. In British folklore, which oceanic creature is considered to be a forewarning of disaster ?

4. Name the animal that produces the largest baby.

5. What is the full form of "OK" ?

